ARMY BLANKS,

Printed in the neatest manner, and on the shortest notice at this office.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette.

THERE is, says Burke, a courageous wisdom: there is also a false reptile prudence, the result not of caution but of fear. Under misfortune it often happens that the nerves of the understanding are so relaxed, the pressing peril of the hour so completely confounds all the faculties, that no future danger can be properly provided for, can be justly estimated, can be so much as fully seen. The eye of the mind is dazzled and vanquished. An abject distrust of ourselves; an extravagant admiration of the enemy, present us with no hope but in a compromise with his pride, by a submission to his will.

Such is the present complexion of our own times; such the feelings which influence our political conduct. Our misfortunes have rendered us lethargic. We stand stupidly gazing upon the preparations of our enemy, waiting the event of the first shock, uncertain as to where the first irruption will be made, and apparently unable or unwilling to resist it. We call for peace because we believe ourselves unable to continue the war, and attribute that to imbecility in the rulers, which is the result of pusillanimity in the people; instead of forming that union which can alone save the nation, we split into factions rendered disgraceful by the obloquy each heaps on the other. That spirit of patriotism which is the harbinger of success, the inspirer of great and illustrious deeds, is lost in the supercilious hatred and disgust which the spirit of party never ceases to inspire. The contest for honor is absorbed in the contest for office, and the republic totters on the brink of ruin from the disunion of her sons.

Granting that the contest with Great-Britain was an ill advised measure—was commenced upon the most absurd grounds, upon principles not tenable by reason, and which, if tenable, have become from the changes which have taken place since its commencement mere questions of theory, and that its conduct has been in perfect conformity to its absurdity, I still maintain that in supplicating for peace on the recognition of any principles other than those on which we set out, would be abandoning the honor, the integrity, and the dignity of the republic. Let me ask, what hope can the warmest advocate for the restoration of peace draw from the relative situation of the belligerents which would warrant him in the belief that an honorable peace could possibly be obtained? To me it appears an anomoly in the spirit of mankind, that a people learned, intelligent, and enlightened, should endeavour to persuade themselves in contradiction to every maxim of political wisdom, and their own immediate perceptions that the proof of peace is to be found in the most extensive, busy, and active preparations for war. And yet, if we look around us with a view to observe the present temper of the American people, we shall find that all men feel more or less an inclination to believe that peace so much desired by all is approaching. Peace! In the name of God what evidence is there of its approach? Is that evidence to be found in the newspaper paragraphs of one party who declare that the nation is exhausted, that it is bankrupt and devoid of credit; or, is it in the columns of the other teeming with bitter but useless invective against our enemy, and magnificent accounts of those successes which are to bring Great-Britain to our terms? Neither of these will convince a rational man. The nation is not exhausted; nor is Britain subdued—we have not yet submitted to the terms of a haughty conqueror, nor have we been able to compel our enemy to recognize our principles of neutral or national law. Or do we find the evidence we seek in the extraordinary number of troops, the celebrated chiefs, the immense quantity of military stores, cloathing, and munitions of war, of whose arrival in the river St. Lawrence we have almost daily and hourly accounts? Does the Chesapeake, teeming with the fleets and armed launches of the enemy, present a fairer side to the prospect, or do the futile and abortive expeditions of our own government, in which blood is shed without recompence, and valour sacrificed without object, satisfy the thinking part of community that peace is at hand? Does the conduct of the allied sovereigns in leaving, as it is believed they have done, the only free republic upon earth to be sacrificed on the altar of monarchial vengeance, enable us to turn our eyes upon Europe for the cheering beam of hope? Oh no, the same principles of common safety which plucked down a despotic will subvert a republican institution, and should our dependence be placed upon the potentates of the old world, our hopes will vanish as our liberty declines. In ourselves must rest our dependance, in God and our own arm the certainty of peace. Look around you, fellow citizens, from Maine to the Mississippi, from one end of our western frontier to the other, on the Lakes and the St. Lawrence by which we are bounded, the hostilities of savage or civilized enemies surround us, every preparation which inexhaustible funds in the hands of a nation accustomed to blood possessed of an immense disposable disciplined and veteran force is now in operation against us. We have, it is true, a selection of evils, a disgraceful peace, or an honorable war. A disgraceful peace! dumb be the tongue that would utter it—palsied be the head that would conceive it. An honorable war! Hail to the patriot hosts that would rally round the standard of their country; that would remember that disaster is not disgrace, and that valour and patriotism are best tested in defeat.

SEDLY.

PHILADELPHIA, August 12.

When we consider what the character of that part of the people of Great-Britain is who fill the rank of their armies, and what the value is of that part of our society who are sent to fight our battles of INVASION, we must be shocked at the consideration that, in the present war on the frontiers, America is staking dollars against counters. The common soldiers of Great-Britain are taken, in general, from the refuse of society—are for the greater part disorderly vagabonds—nuisances in times of peace, and when let loose from the military, candidates for the gibbet or for Botany Bay: when living, suspected, abhorred, avoided, & useless but as soldiers; when dead, unlamented. On the contrary, our armies are taken from our valuable productive labour—from our useful estimable yeomanry—from the very best strength of the country. Not a man of them that falls, but makes by his death a lamentable breach in society—wrings the hearts of a worthy family—robs a wife of her last hope, children of their supporter and guide, perhaps aged parents of the joy of their last hours. We venture to affirm that, except with a view to their physical force as soldiers, there is not an officer of mind and feeling in the British service who would not say that this union sustains a greater loss in one of these, than Britain does in twenty of her soldiers. Yet, at this horrible price are we to purchase—What? Territory?—No: Military glory?—No: and if we could, it is not worth the having. Sailor's rights and free trade?—No. What then?—Why, the blessing of being ruled by such men as Mr. Madison and Gen. Armstrong, and that long kite's tail of creatures called the administration, who are sinking the country in ruin, bankruptcy and disgrace: corrupted and corrupting all about them.

ADDITIONAL TROOPS FOR CANADA.

We were last night favoured with a Halifax paper, from which we copy the following:

HALIFAX, Aug. 1.

Yesterday H. M. ship Erne, the Hon. Capt. Napier, from Bordeaux, 43 days. Sailed from the Garonne, 16th June, in company with H. M. ships York & Vangear and 43 sail of transports, bound to Quebec, having on board, between 6 and 700 troops under the command of Gen. KEMPT—parted from them on the 24th ult. at the entrance of the St. Lawrence. At the time of the Erne's departure from Bordeaux, lord HILL was momently expected there to embark for Canada, where it was generally understood, he is to command the troops.

From the Boston Centinel, Aug. 10.

Admiral COCHRANE arrived.

We state as fact, that letters were received in town yesterday from New London, written on last Sunday, stating, that admiral COCHRANE had arrived in the Sound, in the Northumberland 74 guns; and that the vessels of war which arrived with him, with those before on the station, amounted to ten in number; and on that day they were all in sight off Plumb Island.

We learn also that a flag of truce sent up from the Northumberland to general Cushing, on a domestic errand, confirms the preceding articles.

Extract of a letter, dated

" New York, Aug. 11.

" The fortifications for the defence of this city are carrying on with a rapidity which exceeds the most sanguine expectations. The voluntary aid furnished by the patriotic inhabitants is given to a degree and with an enthusiasm unparalleled in the annals of our country. Should this spirit progress as it has begun, we have nothing to fear from any attempt of the enemy."

From the New London (Con.) Gazette, Aug. 10.

POSTSCRIPT.

THE ENEMY AT STONINGTON.

At 8 o'clock last evening, an express arrived at gen. Cushing's head quarters, from Stonington, with information that 2 frigates and a brig had arrived in that harbor, and demanded the surrender of the town, or that it should be laid in ashes; to which demand an answer was given, that the inhabitants would defend their firesides with their lives.

At the request of gen. Cushing, gen. Williams ordered out the 8th and 30th regts. militia, for the defence of the town. Congreve rockets were fired on shore during the night without much injury; and this morning at sun rise, a cannonade commenced, and still continues—six o'clock.

The militia have collected in such a force as to prevent a landing, but we fear the place will be nearly destroyed, as the enemy are lying within half gun shot and our only defence is 2 long eigteen pounders.

The expedition is commanded by com. HARDY.

From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, August 13.

INTERESTING FACT.

An aged and respectable stranger and his 4 sons passed over Brooklyn ferry on Wednesday morning last, and walked to fort Green, where about 200 of our citizens were at work. After they had taken a view of the heights and the adjacent country, the old gentleman observed that " he never passed thro' the city of N. Y. without coming to view this ground." " Nearly 40 years ago" added he, " these hands assisted to erect a fort on this spot—and as old as they are now grown they shall again contribute their mite to the same important object." He threw off his coat, seized a shovel, and calling on his sons to follow his example, descended into the ditch, where he continued to labor with great zeal the whole day.—Two of his sons also continued at work until night; the other 2 having thoroughly fatigued themselves, gave up their labour at an earlier hour. The old gentleman drily observed, that the latter, for their want of courage, should be court-martialled, while the former, who had bravely persevered to the end, should be promoted.

From the Baltimore Patriot.

Extract of a letter from our correspondent, dated

" Norfolk, Aug. 5.

" In a few days this will be the strongest post in the U. S. General PORTER, though an old man, is all activity; he rises at revilee and generally visits the encampment before breakfast. The formation and execution of a plan with him are simultaneous, and both are the result of correct military knowledge and experience.

He has inspired the citizens here with the most unbounded confidence in his talents as a General.

The town of Norfolk is now nearly insulated by lines of entrenchments and redoubts, which present an impracticable barrier to any attack. I have no doubt that the enemy are fully aware of the great strength of the place, or we should not have been left so long undisturbed.

Capt. Gordon, of the frigate Constellation, has his crew in elegant order, both as to appearance and discipline. The sailors as well as marines, are taught the use of the musket, and are occasionally sent on shore for the purpose of drill.—He has them uniformly dressed in white trowsers and frock, with a blue collar & facing of their own workmanship. They excite the admiration of the town."

From a London paper of June 4.

SPAIN.

It is too true, (and we state it with mingled feelings of regret and indignation) that whilst almost every other nation on the face of Europe, is in a state of gentle and wholesome regeneration, preparing to enjoy the blessings of a long repose, under those circumstances, by which alone, those blessings can be enjoyed to their full extent—SPAIN, debased and worthless Spain, has consented to receive, nay more; has invited, has embraced, the ancient despotism of her monarchs and priests.

Yes, Ferdinand rules! and that infamous Decree which he had the audacity to issue at Valencia, which contained his explicit refusal to ratify the Constitution proposed by the Cortes, his denunciation of the government which existed in Spain on his return thither, his dissolution of the Cortes, to whom he owes every thing that he now enjoys, and his determination to punish as traitors, those who should in any way advocate the proposed constitution, or refuse to submit to the abominable edict in which those precious specimens of Spanish justice and gratitude are contained; has been received by the people with enthusiastic rapture! Oh! shame, where is thy blush! The Cortes is dissolved; many of the principal members of that body, especially the most learned and enlightened have been thrown into prison; others have been fain to escape incarceration by flight; the mob have destroyed the statute of liberty, at Madrid, and erased the word Constitution from the public buildings in that city.

It is very remarkable, as it serves strongly to illustrate the character of Ferdinand VII, and to show how undeserving he is of the crown which has been procured for him at such a vast expense of both British and Spanish blood and treasure—that in his proclamation he has not thought fit to mention one word, either of England or of WELLINGTON.

HARRISBURGH, Aug. 13.

DRAFTED MILITIA!

If we may judge of the expected aid to be derived from the new requisition of the militia, from that portion which were to have assembled in this borough on Wednesday last, we have a very small prospect of seeing fulfilled the many sacrifices of " lives and fortunes," so copiously promised to the administration when they commenced this righteous war. Out of the quota (200) which were to have been ready for marching, we are told, only about thirty answered to their names. The volunteer companies of capts. Walker and Henry, are honorable exceptions to the above, the former of which, appeared with increased numbers.

LATE FROM THE NORTHERN FRONTIER.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Plattsburgh, to the Printers of the Albany Gazette, dated

" Plattsburgh, N. Y. July 30, 1814.

" I take the liberty to forward you the subjoined extract from a handbill published in Montreal on the 25th inst. Its importance to the inhabitants of the frontiers must be my apology for troubling you with it.

The great accession of strength which it announces, will render the enemy's forces in Canada, decidedly superior to ours; and there is consequently every reason to apprehend, that before the season has passed away, the citizens of this quarter at least will be subjected to very serious inconveniences.

Of the military operations in this quarter little can be said, as nothing of consequence has occurred for some time past. The army are no, however, under marching orders, and are expected to leave here during the course of this day or tomorrow.

Their destination is unknown, but it is presumed to be Odletown; in the vicinity of which, the enemy is said to be 2000 strong. Perhaps this movement may make a little news for us in the course of a few days."

THE EXTRACT,

ALLUDED TO IN THE ABOVE.

BALTIMORE, August 9.

DEFENCE OF MARYLAND.

We learn from a source entitled to full credit, that the commander of this District, brig. gen. WINDER, has called into service 3000 of the drafted militia, to be stationed near Bladensburgh. He has, also, authority from the secretary of war, in case of exigency, to call in from the adjacent counties of Pennslvania, 5000 in addition; who are already in readiness to march at a moment's notice. These, with gen. Stanbury's brigade, the Regulars and the Baltimore volunteers, will form a force of 15,000 men, that can meet the enemy at any one point between Baltimore and Washington City, in a few hours.

[Fed. Gaz.

The continued increase of the force of the enemy in Canada, by the late and expected arrivals, must at last convince our rulers that all further attempts to conquer that country, will be worse than useless. Our plan of operationa will therefore necessarily change for the better, our whole force and means will now be exerted in self defence, and whatever difference of opinion might exist as to the propriety of a republic making war for the purpose of conquest, there will be no danger of any such doubt, as to the necessity of full and perfect union in self defence.

The supporters of the administration appear now to be convinced of the necessity of union between the great political parties. If such be the wish of the President, let him set the example by removing from office all those who have no other qualification than their obsequious support of all his measures; and by appointing to office men who are well qualified to execute the duties required of them without regard to political opinions—with capable rulers, and efficient officers, Americans would soon prove that they fear no nation in the world, and that they have no cause to fear any.

ANOTHER ATTACK ON STONINGTON.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in New London, (Connecticut) to his correspondent in this city, dated 12th inst.

" I wrote you on the 10th, and informed that the British had made an attack on Stonington. They have not yet withdrawn, nor have they effected their purpose.

" Since Wednesday they have remained quiet, until towards evening yesterday, when they renewed the attack with shells & rockets, which they kept firing till 8 o'clock. At daylight this morning the Ramilies, 74, and a Razee commenced to cannonade (out of reach of the battery) which they continued till 9 or 10 o'clock. It is said to be tremendous in sound, tho' trifling in effect. They have riddled many of the buildings on the Point, and have wounded by the explosion of a shell, a lieut. and 4 or 5 men slightly. This is said to be the amount of the injury yet sustained.

" It is now believed they will not dare to land; and what they will next attack I cannot conjecture. For this town I feel no apprehension, without an increase of force."

" Washington City, Aug. 11.

" The following extract of a letter from a distinguished gentleman of Delaware, on the prospect of Peace, and on our proper policy pending the negociation, is interesting and judicious. I enclose it."

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Wilmington, (Delaware) dated Aug. 6th.

" I received yesterday a letter from Mr. BAYARD at London, in which he says he does not despair of PEACE; though he remarks, that if the sentiments of the Ministry correspond with those of the People, there is little prospect of accommodation. The delay which has taken place in the arrival of their forces destined for this part of the coast, and the apparent tardiness of Sir A. Cochrane, afford some slight expectation of a peace. Otherwise I should think there was not the least prospect of it. During the continuance of this state of uncertainty, which should be terminated as soon as possible, a systematic and vigorous prosecution of the war, is in my humble opinion, the safe and correct course."

A party of British and Indians attacked our picket in sight of the village of Champlain, on Monday morning last.—Four of our men were wounded, 1 severely.

The enemy have repaired the roads, and within a few days, have been pushing the advance of the army into Odletown. Some artillery has been brought up. Our forces remain at Champlain, fully prepared to try the tug of war with the legions of his majesty.

The enemy have at length succeeded by the assistance of a guard, in procuring masts for their vessels.

100 Dollars Reward.

FIFTY DOLLARS will be paid to any person who will apprehend and deliver JOHN SCOTT, a Soldier of the 4th Rifle Regiment, to any Officer commanding any post or recruiting party in the United States. He deserted from Pittsburgh on the 13th day of August, 1814. He was born, and prior to his inlistment, lived in Washington county, Pa. He is 21 years of age, 5 feet seven and an half inches high, of fair complexion, grey eyes, light hair, and by profession a waggon-maker. He wore citizens cloathing, is a plain, simple looking fellow, and completely deceived me by his honest appearance. He said he was just from and had farmed in Hempfield township, Washington county, for some time before his inlistment.

ALSO,

FIFTY DOLLARS will be paid to any person who will apprehend and deliver as above, a scoundrel who was inlisted in the 4th Rifle Regiment, under the name of SAMUEL MILLER. He inlisted Saturday the 20th August, and deserted in the night of that day. He said he was born in Lancaster county, Pa and had served 18 months in Captain Langham's company of the 19th Infantry. He is 37 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, fair complexion, pock pitted, blue eyes, black hair and bald-headed, which he conceals by a handkerchief, by profession a butcher, but says he is a jack of all trades. He is a German, and speaks broken English. He was in citizens cloaths, and wore a straw hat. His ears are pierced, with rings in them. His conduct is calculated to deceive, for he will reprimand others for swearing in his presence.

Sale of Merino Sheep.

ON SATURDAY THE THIRD OF SEPTEMBER, PRECISELY AT 11 O'CLOCK,

WILL commence the Sale of 91 RAMS and 22 EWES, all warranted of the first quality, of full blood MERINO SHEEP. They will be sold by public Auction at Reeves's Ferry, opposite Philadelphia.

Persons desirous of obtaining a pure stock of this invaluable animal, may be assured, that in points of pedigree, age, health, and quality of wool, these are equal to any ever imported, or raised from imported Sheep in this country.

No Farmer should be without a full blood Merino Ram. In three years his Ewes will be nearly equal to the Spanish. A Ram that might cost 150 Dollars, would be paid for by the first 20 Ewe Lambs half blood of the ensuing season. It is of importance to Farmers that each should have one of his own; he may then go on to make a Merino flock: doubling and trebling the value of the Sheep and Wool, whilst the cost of keeping is reduced. Merino Sheep, as is well known, requiring less food, living to a greater age, and being more quiet and docile than any other.

With such advantages, it is a fact that not one Farmer in two hundred on an average, is possessed of a full-blooded Ram.

The Sale now proposed, is calculated from the Season, to ensure to Farmers a reimbursement of their expence, at the ensuing Spring, and to put them in possession of an increasing fund of profit.

August 1st, 1814.

☞ To Patriots.

GREAT injury has been done the public from the frequency of desertion of the soldiery in the service of the U. S. The most vigilant officer is baffled in his efforts to prevent the perjured scoundrel from deserting his country's cause in time of danger. Such rascals premeditatedly come forward, take a solemn oath to serve their country against her enemies & opposers whomsoever, receive the great inducement held out by government for to enlist honest men into her service, and then basely desert it, thereby defrauding the public.

The following inducements are offered to patriotic citizens to detect the perjured scoundrels.

Agreeably to the president's proclamation, FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD, with reasonable expences are paid for each deserter that any citizen or citizens may bring in and deliver to any commanding officer of any post or rendezvous in the U. S.

Further, the following arrangement is made, in addition to the pecuniary consideration for apprehending deserters: Any citizen or citizens who shall apprehend and deliver a deserter or deserters, shall have a certificate of the delivery of the same; and application will be made to the governor of the state, or secretary at war, for the exemption of such citizen or citizens from a tour of military duty.

An alarm will be made as follows: Immediately on the desertion of any soldier from this post, a 24 pounder, heavily charged, will be fired from the top of Grant's Hill, which may be heard at the distance of 10 miles, & in some instances further, to give the citizens an opportunity of being on the alert.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1814.

By SUNDAY'S EXPRESS.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

ERIE, AUGUST 19, 1814.

" An express arrived here yesterday, from Fort Erie, bringing letters from Gen. Gaines, which informs, that the enemy on Monday morning last, attempted to carry that place by storm, and were completely defeated at every point of attack, leaving upwards of 200 killed on the ground, 360 prisoners, and a considerable portion of their killed and wounded were carried off during the action. Their loss in the whole cannot be less than 1000, whilst ours does not amount to 150.

The attempt was made to carry the place by the bayonet alone, which accounts for so few having been killed on our side. They were permitted to make a lodgement on one of the bastions, under which was a mine, which exploded with dreadful carnage, and their 103d Regt. which was 600 strong at the commencement of the attack, lost every man but 60. The attack commenced at 2 o'clock in the morning, and continued until day light, and during this time they busily employed carts, &c. to carry off their killed and wounded. Many of their principal officers have been killed and taken prisoners, amongst the former, is a Col. Drummond, said to be a brother to the General of that name.

Such has been the result of the attempt on the part of the enemy to storm Fort Erie, which they had been cannonading for two days previous, and into which they had thrown 300 shot, shells, and rockets, which, however, had done but little damage, as the men were well secured by traverses."

BY THIS DAY'S EXPRESS.

From the Buffalo Gazette, Aug. 16.

SPLENDID DEFENCE OF FORT ERIE.

We take great pleasure in presenting our readers with the following glorious and interesting news from our gallant army at fort Erie, received late last evening, from undoubted authority.

On Sunday evening lieut. gen. DRUMMOND made his dispositions for storming fort Erie. At half past 2 o'clock yesterday (Monday) morning, the attack commenced from 3 columns, 1 directed against the fort, 1 against capt. Towson's battery, and the 3d moved up the river in order to force a passage between the fort and river. The column that approached the fort, succeeded in gaining the rampart, after having been several times repulsed when about 300 of them had gained the works and made a stand, an explosion from some unknown cause, completely cleared the ramparts of the enemy, the most of whom were utterly destroyed. The column that moved to attack the south (Towson's) battery, made desperate charges, but were met with such firmness by our artillery and infantry, that they were compelled to back; they advanced a 2d and 3d time with great resolution, but being met with such gallantry, they gave way and retired. The column that marched up the river, were repulsed before they assaulted the batteries. Shortly after the explosion, the enemy finding every effort to gain the fort, or carry the batteries, unavailing, withdrew his forces from the whole line, and retreated to the woods. The action continued 1 hour and an half, during which, (except the short interval that the enemy occupied the ramparts) the artillery from the fort and batteries kept up a most destructive fire, as well on the main body of the enemy, as on the attacking columns. These columns were composed of the best of the British army, volunteers from every corps, the forlorn hope.

The enemy's loss is estimated at rising 800. 123 rank and file passed this place this morning for Greenbush. Col. Drummond, and 6 or 7 officers were killed, one deputy quarter master general (said to be Capt. Elliot) and two platoon officers, prisoners. Our loss in killed, does not exceed 20, most of which we learn are of the artillery. We regret to state, that captain Williams and Lt. M'Donough, of the artillery, are killed; Lt. Fontaine, missing, supposed taken prisoner.

Several of our officers were wounded, but we have not learned their names.

From the circumstance, of the enemy's main body lying within grape and canister distance from the fort, their loss must be very severe, greater than what is mentioned in the above estimation.—The enemy's waggons were uncommonly active yesterday morning in removing the wounded.

The prisoners are of the 8th, 100th, 103d, 104th, and De Wattevill's regts. and a few sailors.

Brig. Gen. Gaines commanded the fort.

DOCTOR HANDY'S,

WORM DESTROYING

LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious Medicine for destroying and bringing away

WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary. The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable Medicine has often been known to remove half a pot-full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the reader's time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times, the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head-ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic, or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above, and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above valuable Medicine is sold only by

J P. & J. W. SKELTON,

HANDBILLS—CARDS—BLANKS—AND JOB

PRINTING OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS EXECUTED

IN THE NEATEST MANNER, AND ON THE SHORTEST NOTICE.

Doctor CHISHOLM'S

Anti-Bilious Pills,

OF A QUALITY

Superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a

GENERAL MEDICINE,

IN THIS COUNTRY,

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates

This extraordinary medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuant of bile, is without example; never producing debility, or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child, or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excrutiating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains, wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flax-seed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and diseases of the liver, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills, taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case, the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by

J. P. & J. W. Skelton,
